With almost two decades of extensive work in both the public and private sector, the TRUSTPRO™ was developed in partnership with Trust Expert, Deborah Nixon, Ph.D. and Trust Learning Solutions.

The TRUSTPRO™ assists organizations in diagnosing the critical issue of trust in order to provide targeted and precise training and coaching that maximizes the level of trust of all employees.

The TRUSTPRO™ is based on the premise that trust, the ability to create it and maintain it, plays a critical role in performance. For any business relationship to be successful, company representatives must follow through with their commitments and be capable of engendering trust quickly.

The TRUSTPRO™ identifies an individual's propensity toward trust and diagnoses what the individual does to impede or facilitate it in their business relationships. The customized, detailed reporting system helps leadership to coach and develop this critical skill.
